Judson University Staff

Coach Cook is the Head Women's Basketball Coach at Judson University. He's in his 10th season with the Lady Eagles and achieved "National Tournament" status with the Lady Eagles in 2006.

Coach Cook is also the founder and director of an AAU Basketball organization "Illinois Team USA". Illinois Team USA is currently in its 20th season.

Assistant Coach Dee McDermott

Dee McDermott enters her first season on Jim Cook coaching staff. Dee started coaching with Coach Cook this past summer through his Illinois Team USA, AAU program. She is a graduate of St. Charles High School in St. Charles where she earned many high honors in both basketball and softball. She went on to attend George Williams College in Downers Grove, IL where she continued to play both basketball and softball. She started her coaching career with the South Elgin Park Dist. She coached youth basketball and soccer. She currently is in her third season as the Head Coach for Harvest Christian Academy Middle School Girls Team. She led her Harvest team to an undefeated conference season in 2008-2009. Besides coaching, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends. Currently, she resides in Pingree Grove with her husband Dan and son Cole.
